Your pathway to arts board leadership.

Program and Curriculum

Boardway Bound provides informational content and conversations through six in-person class sessions, three networking events, and one online class session. The 2021 curriculum includes a combination of six in-person and online class sessions and carefully chosen articles, thought pieces, and in-person class sessions.

Program Timeline

- September 29: Building Support, Audience and a Solid Financial Outlook
- October 6: Community Impact and Storytelling
- October 13: Art and Advocacy: Creating Boards that Represent the Entire Community
- October 20: Risk Management and Board Governance
- October 27: Speed Dating Interviews
- November 3: Making the Difference: Defining the Mission of Arts in Our Community.

Costs

- $650 per person all-inclusive:
  - Tuition
  - Registration for class sessions
  - Program and Curriculum materials
  - Networking events (sponsored by Thompson Hine)
  - Networking time (sponsored by Thompson Hine)

Registration

- Register at artwave.org/boardwaybound or email boardwaybound@artswave.org.
- Limited number of scholarships are available on an as-needed and limited basis.

Who should apply?

All backgrounds and career stages are welcome. All you need is a desire to make an impact on the arts.

Who can apply?

Participants may have limited board experience but are seeking professional development in governance and best practices. Some may have limited knowledge of the business of arts organizations — learning about the issues unique to nonprofit arts. Others may have come from some of the region’s leading businesses — or organizations that rely on the arts or have special knowledge of arts businesses — and wish to make an impact on the arts.

Unique to Boardway Bound

- A network of classmates, session speakers and program graduates through our Alumni Network
- A diverse set of speakers and presenters from across the region
- Art and Advocacy: Creating boards that represent the entire community
- As a Cincinnati transplant, Boardway Bound was a one-of-a-kind leadership development and community building experience that made the city my new home.
