“Being a part of Women’s Leadership Roundtable is the best way to network and experience the arts in the region.”

ArtsWave’s Women’s Leadership Roundtable is a network of women who make a powerful impact on the region’s arts. Founded by 2014 ArtsWave Community Campaign Chair and former P&G Group President Melanie Healey, the group now has more than 400 members contributing $1 million+.

By joining, you enable ArtsWave to provide funding for 410,000+ annual arts experiences for local students, 1,000+ free and accessible neighborhood arts activities outside traditional venues and 100+ arts projects and organizations that contribute directly to our region’s success and vitality.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- Invitation to the Women’s Leadership Symposium, an annual event featuring inspirational women leaders in the arts and business
- Invitations to behind-the-scenes events and experiences throughout the year at unique venues
- Recognition in ArtsWave’s annual report

LEADERSHIP GIVING BENEFITS (included with your membership)

- Experience ArtsWave Hour, a luncheon event series with arts and community leaders
- Invitation to an exclusive ArtsWave award tradition that honors an individual who has made a significant impact in the region through the arts
- Exclusive Guided BLINK® 2019 Tour for you and your family — discover the murals created for the region’s largest ever event
- Music Hall for Two*: Two tickets to a select performance by the Cincinnati Ballet, Cincinnati Opera, Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, Cincinnati Pops Orchestra or May Festival
- ArtsWave Pass: One year of buy one, get one free tickets and exclusive deals at 100+ arts experiences, shops, restaurants, sports and more
